

Bradford School News

March 19, 2021

*“Happiness is not something readymade. It comes from your own actions.” –
Dalai Lama*

Follow us on Twitter @BradfordSchool to receive updates about school!

National Women’s History Month

- In continuation of our celebration of Women’s History Month, Mr. Key’s 5D class conducted a poetry slam on Friday where students introduced their own digital presentations featuring researched information on unique women assigned to them.
- Also, in honor of Women's History Month, I would like to share with you the talents of one of our valued paraprofessionals Mr. Robinson’s niece Naimah whose lyric video “Born To Be A Fighter” highlights some of the fearless, trailblazing women whose accomplishments have led the way for change, and who have become an integral thread in our culture and society: Naimah - "Born To Be A Fighter" - Lyric Video

“I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings: A History of Black American Music”

- This Monday, Ms. Chanin’s 2C class will be treating our families to a special celebration culminating the class’ Black American Music Project.

Update on School Reopening and Hybrid Scheduling

- In preparation for our scheduled reopening on April 12, I have commenced migrating students on Genesis to our hybrid cohorts of either Mounties or Bulldogs. Requests are being honored on a first-come, first-served basis; however, the deadline was March 17th at 5pm. Scheduling is dependent on maintaining district social-distancing regulations in the classroom.
 - I am working with our PTA to schedule for a back to school informational forum for families.

Upcoming Dates

- March 31st: Early (1:40) Dismissal for Parent Conferences

Enjoy your weekend!